NOTING THE FLYING QUEENS.....The only undefeated team in the women's division of the NAIA, Wayland Baptist has not relinquished its top spot in the NAIA, holding down the number one position in every regular season poll and being selected the number one tournament seed. Undefeated in 30 games, the Flying Queens have not lost a contest since the 1986 championship game when they dropped a 75 65 decision to Francis Marion SC. Considered one of the most well balanced teams in the NAIA, Wayland Baptist has four players averaging in double figures. Key players to watch include All-America senior center Carmen Wynn, who broke the school's 34-year-old all-time scoring mark this season, and senior guard Shelly Kay, known for record-setting assists and the hustle that won her the tournament award last March.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY AND RECORDS BOOK

1986: Francis Marion Lives Up to Top Billing

KANSAS CITY, MO—Number one ranked and seeded Francis Marion SC justified its advance billing and captured the championhip of the 6th Annual NAIA National Women's Basketball Championship Tournament, March 14-18, at Kansas City' Bartle Hall and Kemper Arena.

The Lady Patriots broke open a close game late in the second half as their much-heralded offense came alive, turning back Wayland Baptist TX, 75-65. Francis Marion ended its championship season with a 36-2 record.

Third-seeded Wayland Baptist, which led by one at halftime, trailed 54-50 before scoring seven of the next nine points and taking a 57-56 lead with 5:57 to play. That was to be the last lead for the Flying Queens, 31-5.

Senior forward Jeanette Alston scored seven-of-eight unanswered points for Francis Marion in the next two minutes and the Lady Patriots outscored the Queens 19-8 the rest of the way to claim their first NAIA national title. Alston finished with a game-high 23 points and 13 rebounds and guard Kim Slawson added 22 points, including seven down the stretch to pace the Francis Marion attack.

Francis Marion was the number one ranked offensive team in the nation going into the tournament, and beat its four opponents by a combined total of 110 points.

The Lady Patriots' All-America sophomore center Tracey Tillman was named most valuable player of the tournament, while Shelly Kay of Wayland Baptist was selected for the hustle award. The Flying Queens were presented the Fellowship of Christian Athletes Sportsmanship Award.

National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) is a completely autonomous association, currently administering programs of intercollegiate athletics to nearly 500 fully-accredited colleges and universities of moderate enrollment. The fundamental tenet of the NAIA is that intercollegiate athletics is an integral part of the total educational program of the institution. This belief is strongly reflected in the governing documents, activities and organizational structure of the Association.

HISTORY AND PURPOSE

Established in 1940 as the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball (NAIB), the NAIA emanated from a "National Small College Basketball Tournament" inaugurated in 1937 in Kansas City, Missouri. The conversion of the NAIB to the NAIA came in 1952 when the organization expanded beyond basketball and added national championship events in golf, outdoor track and field and tennis. Football, cross country, baseball and swimming were added to the championship event calendar in 1956, and wrestling (1958), soccer (1959), bowling (1962-78), gymnastics (1964-84), indoor track and field (1966), ice hockey (1968-83) and volleyball (1969-1980) were later additions.

Of major significance to the NAIA, was the establishment of the women's division within the Association on August 1, 1980. The NAIA decison to offer competitive opportunities and championships in women's athletics was passed by the membership following two years of study and proposals by an ad hoc committee on the implementation of a women's division in the NAIA. Currently, the Association conducts ten championship event programs for women in the sports of basketball, cross country, gymnastics, indoor and outdoor track and field, softball (fast pitch), soccer, swimming, tennis and volleyball.

The initial purpose of the NAIA — to provide national championship athletic opportunities to institutions below the so-called "major" level — has indeed been well served. The Association clearly outlines its own responsibilities and those of its members: a sound athletics program, administered and controlled by those responsible for the administration of the institution. This means direct supervision in caliber of competition, financing of the program and taking steps to assure that financial assistance is made available only through the institution and under the same general policies as aid to all students. In short, the basic premise is that the athletics program is a basic component of the overall educational process and not an entity apart.

ADMINISTRATION

The NAIA is governed by two bodies. The Council of Presidents, composed of one president from each district, is responsible for fiscal matters, academic standards and supervision of the national staff. The 10-person Executive Committee, elected by the membership, is responsible for organizing championship events and overseeing the committees and associations. The Executive Director conducts the day-to-day operation of the National Office, headquartered in Kansas City, Missouri. A full time staff of fifteen serves the membership from the National Office.

The District is the basic unit of the NAIA. The Association is organized into 32 geographical districts spread over the 50 states and part of Canada. Each District is governed by a District Executive Committee, headed by the District Chair. The District Executive Committee establishes district playoff events, the champions of which qualify to compete in NAIA Area and National Championship competition.

Eligibility rules within the NAIA govern all play in all sports recognized by the Association, not just post-season play. All eligibility guidelines must be adhered to by all members, including those holding dual affiliation with other associations. Certification of eligibility of all NAIA participants is accomplished through a network of people including faculty athletic representatives, District Eligibility Chairs, and the National Eligibility Committee.

MEMBERSHIP

Any four-year college or university and upper level two-year institution in the United States and Canada that awards the bachelor's degree or equivalent, may hold active NAIA membership. Active member institutions must be fully accredited by an appropriate accrediting agency or commission.

OBLIGATION OF MEMBERSHIP

Member institutions must conduct their intercollegiate athletics programs with the standards of the regulatory associations in which they hold membership, and the NAIA. They must pay their annual membership dues and be in support of the policies of the NAIA. Where institutional rules and standards are more stringent than those of the regulatory group or the NAIA, those rules and standards of the institution are recognized and supported by the NAIA.
